Partnership for Haddonfield Appoints New Board Chairperson

Haddonfield, NJ – January 21, 2010 – The Borough of Haddonfield's Commissioners have appointed Susan Hodges, Esq., as the Partnership for Haddonfield's new board chairperson.

Ms. Hodges is a partner with the law firm of Archer & Greiner P.C., and works in the firm's Haddonfield office. She is replacing Robert Kugler, Esq., as the Partnership for Haddonfield's Board Chairperson. Ms. Hodges will preside at all meetings of trustees; will provide general and active management of affairs; will see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect; and will oversee execution of legal documents.

A native of Camden County, New Jersey, Ms. Hodges' career practice emphasis is in labor and employment and school law, providing counsel to businesses as well as both public and private schools. In addition to her labor and employment and school law practice, she also counsels and represents carriers in insurance coverage disputes involving school-related issues under commercial general liability policies and errors & omissions policies.

Ms. Hodges earned her B.A. from Lafayette College, cum laude. She went on to earn her J.D. from the Rutgers School of Law at Camden.

Ms. Hodges is a member of the New Jersey Bar Association; the Pennsylvania Bar Association; the Camden County Bar Association; and the Burlington County Bar Association. She has also been recognized as a "40-Under-40" recipient by the NJ Law Journal, and received SJ Magazine's "Top Attorney" award and South Jersey Magazine's "Awesome Attorney" award.

"I look forward to further enhancing Haddonfield's business district and helping downtown Haddonfield continue to flourish as the region's premier downtown shopping and dining destination," said Ms. Hodges.
